The Mason LINE

by Chen Mason

We were slightly amused at the county supervisors' sudden concern over the smog problem here in the county. We might suggest that before hiring an expert on smog control, they take a run out to Paradise Mesa (Paradise? What are we saying?). We'll even furnish a map for a slight fee if the boys don't know how to get there. But it's easily found: just head south through L. G. or S. V. and follow the smudge. Soon you'll come to the county dump. Remember how you shook it out of La Mesa's hair a few years ago?

Ever think of dumping the stuff in a canyon and filling in with a bulldozer instead of trying to burn it?

But then, what's the hurry? It will soon be taken over by the city as the property becomes more valuable. Then you can move the menace into S. V. or L. G. Our oriented olfactorys are oblivious to the obnoxious by now, anyhow.

—ML—
Although our TV viewing is now just about reduced to the fights and ballgames (when we can get 'em) there's the Bob Cummings show at 10:30 Sunday nights, Channel four and ten, which we think is just about tops in light entertainment.

THE CHANGING TIMES:

It was our ambition as a very young boy to get to be old enough to wear long pants. We suppose most young boys now wish they were old enough to wear short ones!

—ML—
A Montana friend of ours was telling us about the big fish he caught in his home state. "As a matter of fact," he said, "I caught one that measured eight inches."

"Gosh," we answered, "we've caught fish bigger than that right here in California."

"Could be," said our friend, "but did you measure him between the eyes?"

Lemon Grove Man is Now Successful Hospital Owner

A former Lemon Grove man has parlayed a local rest home into a general hospital... and proved to himself and hundreds of patients that hospitalization can be efficient without being too expensive.

Ray Snyder, who successfully operated Cresta Loma, a rest home at 7922 Palm Street for a number of years, said that his excursion into hospital ownership was not necessarily planned.

"I had just completed building the La Mesa telephone building, and my associate owner, Mrs. Stella Cary, had just sold the La Mesa Community Hospital and both of us were casting about for a project of humanitarian nature. Rest Haven, a former institution at 55th and University for underprivileged children, had been abandoned for two years and the building seemed to lend itself to hospital reconstruction. So we bought the entire 11 acres and started development," he said.

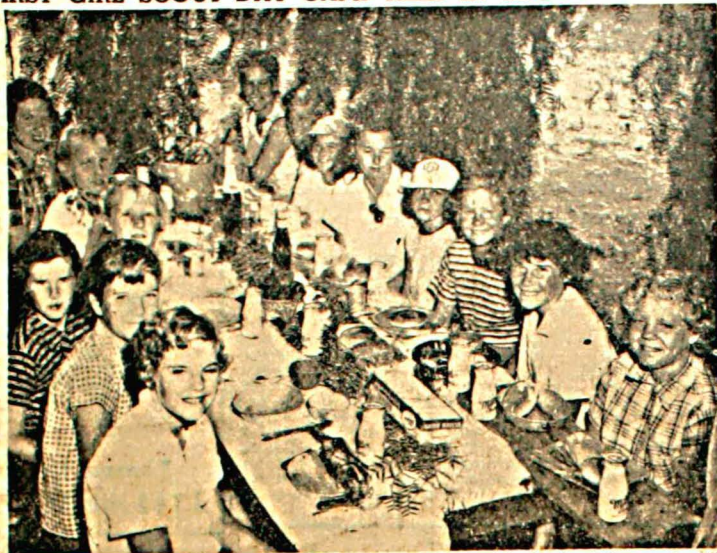

County and state laws are extremely rigid concerning hospitals, he said. All general hospitals must meet the same standards whether privately or publicly owned, he pointed out.

"We decided upon a 45 bed establishment and rebuilt with an eye toward efficiency but we considered the patient every step of the way," Mrs. Cary said. "We have a king sized operating room flanked by an auxiliary operating room, each a separate entity. We have a complete laboratory and X-ray room. Oxygen is piped to every room and every bed has an inter-com to the nurse's station. Some of the county's finest medical men staff the organization," Mrs. Cary said.

On the same grounds is Bel-Air, a newly opened convalescent home. Law forbids such an establishment operating in conjunction with a hospital so a new corporation was formed to build the newest establishment. This attractive building houses 21 beds.

In the convalescent home is where the patient's money comes home to roost. Medical men have long since acknowledged that recuperating patients do not necessarily need the constant supervision of highly trained and expensive hospital personnel. The convalescent home, in close proximity to the hospital, meets all the emergency needs offered by a hospital but with a nursing staff spread thinner. Additionally, occupational therapy, the first time offered in such an establishment, has been made part of the treatment. Patients may in-Springer even learn a trade while following their recuperating hours. Titled knitting, gardening, painting and

FIRST GIRL SCOUT DAY CAMP HELD IN GROVE

Day Camp is fun... as you can see reflected in the happy faces of the Lumber Jills, a group of Girl Scouts of the Tree Badge Unit who took part in the first annual Lemon Grove Day Camp project. It was held in the area near the Youth Center. About 100 girls in all took part.

In this group are: (l. to r.) Gertrude Boltz, 8024 Mt. Vernon; Cheryl McGee, 7310 Waite Drive; Lorna Walsh, 7848 Lincoln; Beverly Holsclaw, 8281 Golden; Marcia Manu, 6611 McArthur; Assistant Leader Elizabeth Coryell; Leader Mrs. P. E. McCormick; Ardye Holmberg, 8224 Golden; Kathleen Zaworski, 3268 Acacia; Peggy Taylor, 3880 Quarry Road; Linda Cooper, Jamul; Marsha Thomas, 7486 Pacific and Terry Kuhn, 3736 Grove.

Leaders were unanimous in declaring the need for a community recreation center.

PUDDLE-SIZE RAIN WETS LEMON GROVE

Puddles of water greeted early risers Tuesday following a night of light showers which brought rainfall of storm propensity to the back country.

Road damage was "considerable" in some areas in the Borrego and Cuyamaca range regions. No local damage was reported. Nor were any local records set in that it rains in July or August every three or four years.

Area to Get Auto License Office

One of the projects of the Lemon Grove Review bore fruit this week when the Department of Motor Vehicles announced that a branch office would be built at the corner of Lee and University in La Mesa to serve the foothills area. The Review had encouraged the department for many months to open an office in Lemon Grove because of the fast growing population and central location of the town.

The La Mesa office will get started immediately according to Beth Bennett, manager of the San Diego district office at 4th and Cedar Streets.

Mrs. Bennett said that she had requested the Sacramento headquarters to establish an eastern branch during the period the Review was agitating for such.

"This is another step in our determination to give better service to the people who pay the department's bill," Mrs. Bennett said. "The pressure of the growth of that part of our district couldn't be resisted much longer."

The new office will issue license tabs and transfers and driver's licenses.

Vincenz to Speak Here Friday

Jean Vincenz, director of public works for the county, has been invited as guest speaker Friday at the weekly meeting of the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

Vincenz will discuss the new utility rate which will affect all Grove residents when it goes into effect. James Pearce, Lemon Grove realtor, is program chairman.

Ray Purtee, shoe store operator, who was program chairman last week, read a paper in which he complained of the lack of enthusiasm by the Men's Club for matters that must be solved by someone in the community. He called for members to be "boosters" instead of "obstructors." He announced the formation of a new group which he has started called the "Boosters." He did not reveal the present membership but said that officers would be named after the first meeting, the date of which was to be announced later.

Generous Grove People Solve Harold's Problem

Harold Nienast has a new bicycle!

He has some money to take home to his aged mother, too.

Last week we told how Harold's bicycle had been stolen. He used the bicycle to run errands for additional money to supplement his wages at the bakery. The response to the story was overwhelming.

Lou Glaser, operator of the L. G. Auto Radiator Co., started the ball rolling with $5. Ralph Bowman of the Grove Bakery sent over $5, too. Henry Goldy, operator of Michael's, brought over a new bicycle for Harold. Tom Papagni of Western Auto had given a discount on it. The Fire Department Auxiliary and the Firemen's Relief Association stopped in to offer the difference between what was contributed and what was needed... but the little heart warming community project had already been wrapped up.

This week, because some Grove residents have big hearts, Harold

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

An editor is invited to attend a lot of doings in his town. Regardless of how unimportant they may appear to you, they are of prime importance to those holding the function, and of course, to the editor whose job it is to chronicle, as best he can, the mores of his community.

Once in a while some event is so outstanding in its simplicity that we are hard put for words to describe it. That is what happened last week when I was guest of the Lumber Jills, the 12 girl Tree Badge Unit of the Girl Scouts when they had their Day Camp project in the Youth Center area.

These 12 little lassies, 9 to 13 years of age, cooked a meal superior to many professionally prepared ones. They won my heart with their friendliness and cheerfulness.

Their leaders, Mrs. P. E. McCormick and Mrs. Elizabeth Coryell, both of whom have children of scouting age, accomplished a modern day miracle by welding the group into a purposeful organization. The project is under the protective wing of Mrs. Harold Hersh, 1911 Eldora, who has no children of scouting age.

But it was the fellowship at lunch I enjoyed the most. There had been casualties. One girl stepped on a nail and was limping but well bandaged. Another whacked her finger while trying to cut wood for the fire, another burned her thumb as well as the roasting ears we had for lunch, but burns, bites, and bruises were adequately treated and the girls returned to their responsibilities.

They chanted a respectful prayer before we ate. They chipped like little magpies but they did not interrupt when one of the three adults spoke during the meal. They said "please" and "thank you" in the proper places.

After we ate they showed samples of their outdoorcraft. There was evidence of competition, but not of jealousy. They surprised us with a special treat. They sang a "safety" poem we ran in the paper earlier this year. Maybe you remember it. Words ran "Ain't Gonna Need This Wreck No Longer." It was accompanied by a picture of a wrecked auto and told the story of an unsafe car. Tune was to "Ain't Gonna Need This House No Longer." They made it a choir project. When it came out in the paper, they also sang a couple of other songs, mostly of goodfellowship, then gathered around me, the only male there, and sang "For He's a Jolly Good, etc."

When I came back to work my heart was light but my throat was a little tight. You know the feeling that comes when you've witnessed something pleasant and impressive and natural.

I recommend to you who are jaundiced and pained by your association with some of the idiots who carry the label of adults, that you spend an hour with these wonderful youngsters, or better still, take on the duty of scout leader, enjoy the most rewarding effort of your life.

I want to thank the Lumber Jills of the Tree Badge Unit of the Girl Scouts for giving me one of the more pleasant hours I have ever had and I wish I could assure them that our citizens would provide a recreation area for these simple, childish pleasures.

WALKER-SCOTT TO SELL STOCK FOR GROVE EXPANSION

A common stock offering in the amount of $299,965 will be made this month by The Walker-Scott Corp. It was announced yesterday by George A. Scott, president and general manager. It is the first public offering of the company's shares since the firm was organized in 1935.

"The company will sell 8,571 common shares at $35 per share to increase working capital prior to the start of construction on a 110,000 square-foot branch store (Continued on Page 5)

Utility Rate to Increase 24% in Grove in August

Electric rates in Lemon Grove will rise 24% beginning next month, it was decided by the California Utilities Commission this week when it authorized an increase for the S. D. Gas & Electric Co., which they said was their first increase in 34 years.

Based on an average of 200 kh per month, local residents will now pay $6.78 a month as against $5.46 per month under the former schedule, an increase of $1.32 per month.

The commission permitted the gas company to operate a two zone system. All incorporated towns and cities will enjoy a lower rate and smaller increase. As an example, 200 kh in an incorporated area is now $5.77 a month, up 73c from the previous scale but 99c per month less than the Lemon Grove rate.

The commission ordered the gas company to make a further zoning study to determine if any unincorporated areas are sufficiently built up to warrant special rate treatment. A public hearing will be held in four months reopening the zoning system.

Local observers pointed out that Lemon Grove has no spokesman-group to present to the commission facts of Lemon Grove's population density and geographical location both of which will be used in the commission's final decision on December 12. Percentage-wise it amounts to an increase of 15% for cities and 24% for county.

HEALTH FOOD CENTER TO OPEN

Mrs. T. E. Carlton

Area residents will have an opportunity to be healthier than ever when Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Carlton open their Nutrition Center early next month in their own building at 7894 Broadway, next to Luther Hussey's professional building.

The shop will carry a complete line of special purpose foods, health foods, vitamins, dried fruits, cosmetics and dietetic and diabetic foods.

A snack bar is being installed to serve juices, malts, sandwiches and salads. Everything served will favor nutritional health, Mrs. Carlton said.

The couple has been in the food and drug business for many years in Chicago, Kansas, and South Dakota.

At the time the Nutrition Center opens the new Hollywood Beauty Shop, which will occupy the other side of Carlton's building, will open. This shop will have several innovations in that the shop is being built expressly for the Hollywood management.

Mrs. Carlton will operate the Nutrition Center, Kenneth Priest, a Lemon Grove resident, owns the Hollywood chain.

GROSSMONT HOSPITAL READY TO TAKE FIRST PATIENT

Preparations for dedicating Grossmont Hospital on Sunday, July 24, for open house during the following week, and for receiving the first patient about August 15 were being rushed at the 108-bed institution this week.

Louis M. Peelyon, administrator, expressed the invitation of the board of directors to the public generally to attend the dedication ceremonies at 2 p.m. Sunday, when Dr. Malcolm Merrill, state director of public health, will be the guest speaker. Burton Jones, one of the original board members of Grossmont Hospital district, will be the master of ceremonies, and the dedicatory plaque will be presented to Marvin Jackson, president of the district.

The Summer School Band of Grossmont High School, under the direction of Benton Minor, will play before and during the program, which will be held in front of the hospital.

The hospital will be open for inspection during the afternoon, and each afternoon during the following week. The building will be 97 per cent complete by dedication day, Peelyon predicted.

Equipment and furnishings are arriving in carload lots, and therapeutic and diagnostic facilities are moving into place rapidly, with expectation that they will be virtually complete by Sunday.

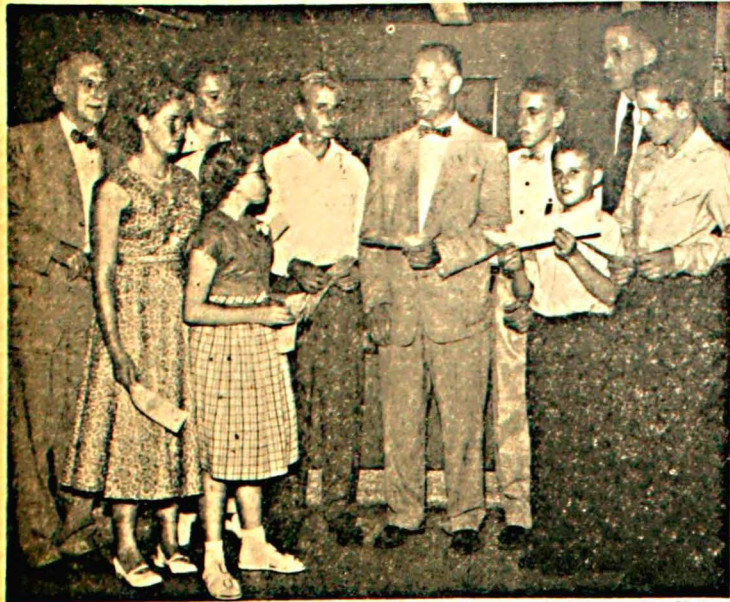

First technical area to be completely furnished was the deep therapy X-ray room in the radiology department. Use of all the annual Harvest Ball, Country Fair and by direct contributions from individuals to the Memory Garden.

The hospital will have patient rooms with spectacular views from every window and interior decorations are of a selection of pastel colors blending with the surrounding landscape. Each bed will be equipped with its own oxygen outlet, telephone service, two way communication device between room and nurses' station, and radio and music by way of a pillow loudspeaker, or television service will be available at a small daily charge.

Temporary entrance to the hospital grounds is by way of Lakewood Drive, which intersects Highway 80 at the La Mesa traffic signal. Permanent entrance will be at the front of the hospital, using a cloverleaf traffic separation on Highway 80.

Area youngsters receive checks for livestock sold at County Fair, at party held at First National Bank, El Cajon Branch. Left to right: Von N. Over 250 4-H Club members, Future Farmers of America, their families and friends were honored at a party at the First National Bank, El Cajon Branch. Youngsters from the eastern part of the county received checks for their animals that had been sold at the Junior Livestock Auction at the San Diego County Fair at Del Mar. Also attending the event at the bank were representatives of the 22nd Agricultural District, 4-H Club members and FFA instructors.

This year the First National Bank clerked the sale at the fair, and all 224 youngsters who participated have been paid, with the bank assuming responsibility of collection from the purchasers. The total amount of money handled for the boys and girls was $36,712.71. Over 100 youngsters and parents attended a similar party at the La Jolla Branch of First National Bank, and 45 attended the event in Chula Vista.

TWO GROVE MEN IN RESERVE TRAINING

Presidio of San Francisco — Army reservists from Lemon Grove will complete 15 days of summer training at the Presidio of San Francisco on Saturday, July 23.

The men, members of the 6215th Station Complement—an Army Reserve Unit stationed at Fort Rosecrans—arrived here on July 10. They have been taking training in their military job specialties, ranging from military police work to personnel administration.

Officers from Lemon Grove taking training include: Captain

DR. NICHOLL TO BE EXAMINER TO HUNTER PROGRAM

Dr. Calvin K. Nicholl, 7852 Golden Avenue, has been named local examining optometrist for the state hunter safety program.

A state law requires that all hunters under 16 years of age submit to a training course in safe handling of firearms.

Optometric study disclosed that poor vision consistently accounts for many hunting accidents. The Vision Conservation Institute through the California Optometric Association has obtained consent of optometrists in 235 California cities and towns to provide free examinations for anyone, adults or youngsters, who takes the course.

TOWN'S OLD STORE TO CLOSE

Arthur Boese, who started the Lemon Grove Variety Store on Main Street eight years ago and who has been operating it ever since, is retiring. It was one of the first stores in the Grove. He is selling out the stock and will close the store when the merchandise is gone. He and his wife Mamie will spend several weeks traveling after which they will return to Lemon Grove to dispose of their home.

Kenneth G. Harvey, 3015 Imperial Ave., and Captain Clarence J. Heidick, 2612 Nida Pl.

The unit will resume reserve status training Monday, July 25. It meets at 7:30 p.m. at Building 140 at Fort Rosecrans.

Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg To Speak at State College

United States foreign policy will be the theme of the three-week institute on world affairs at San Diego State College August 1-19.

Fourteen authorities on political science and international relations will highlight the 13th annual session, open to all interested persons.

Its purpose is to improve understanding of such questions as coexistence, containment of massive retaliation; trade or aid; communism and nationalism; European unification; and the role of the United States and many of the most pressing problems facing Americans today. The lectures will be accompanied by 26 films.

One of the principal speakers will be Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, chancellor of Austria until he was imprisoned by Hitler after the Nazi putsch in 1938. He was liberated by the Allies in 1945. The former chancellor was forced to resign by Hitler for attempting to keep Austria independent.

There will be other important speakers.

CURING IS EXPENSIVE!

Nonprofit hospitals had trouble paying their bills last year, according to The American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook for 1955. Although the average patient paid $19.49 a day, the hospitals were paying $21.09 a day and had to meet the per-patient loss of $1.60 a day out of contributions and income from endowments.

New President Named for Kiwanis International

Jackson A. Raney, Indianapolis school executive, has been named president of Kiwanis International. He was elected to the number-one Kiwanis post by delegates attending the 40th annual convention of Kiwanis International at Cleveland, Ohio.

As head of Kiwanis International, Raney will be official spokesman for almost a quarter million Kiwanians in 4062 clubs located throughout the United States and Canada, and in Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands. He succeeds Don E. Engdahl, Spokane, Washington lumberman who has held the post since August of 1954.

Raney has devoted most of his professional life to the education of the physically-handicapped. He has been a superintendent of the Indiana State School for the Deaf at Indianapolis for 20 years. He is a graduate of Franklin College and a member of its council. Recently he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from that institution.

President of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club is Dan Apra, pastor of the Congregational Church.

Or, as Goldsmith might have written it: Wellfare the land to politics a prey—Dallas Morning News.

MARINER'S DINNER MEETING TO BE HELD IN EL CAJON

Dr. Elmer L. Jones of Trinity Presbyterian Church will have as his topic next Sunday morning "Faith and Works." This will be the seventh in his series on What God Hath Joined Together.

Saturday, July 23, the Mariner Skippers district dinner meeting will be held at El Cajon. Dr. Jones as district chaplain will lead the devotional.

Eighteen boys of Scout Troop 171, together with Scoutmaster Chuck Pike, Assistant Scoutmaster George Taylor, committeeman Dave Hulet and assisted by Ted Crouch, held an all night camp-out northwest of Descanso. Most of the boys were working toward first class advancement, which included mapping, and direction by reading the stars and compass.

Their morning worship service was conducted by Ted Crouch. The Cub Scouts are planning a campout next weekend with their respective families.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eaton drove three of the young folks from Trinity to Pacific Palisades Sunday, to the Junior Choir Camp, where they will meet with others from different churches to study, play, and worship for one week. Those attending are Joeline Eaton, John Ball and Sandy Luzzama. Joeline and John went on a scholarship they had won for their work here.

Throwin' The Bull

By BOB TURNBULL

It's a Joke, Son! . . . The only bad part of being a good sport is that you have to lose to prove it.

Altar Arrests . . . Frankie Harris, Spring Valley, is now officially engaged to Don Bland. Frankie is a Helix grad. . . . Marlene Killman, ex-Helixer and former Highland band leader, is now the wife of Art Brown. They were "hitched" in that favorite spot in Arizona. They will claim El Cajon home. . . . Two graduates of Helix, Nancy Burnett and Ken Johnson were married June 26 in La Mesa. Miss Phyllis Ehlers served as maid of honor. Carol Donohue and Hope Shepherd were two of the four bridesmaids. Jim Ethridge and Jim Sinegal were two of the four ushers. . . . Diane Wright, Helix alumna, and Bill Cooper, former Diego JC lad, are engaged. . . . Beverly Rowe recited the eternal vows with Dominick Mazzeppi on June 26. After a honeymoon to L. A. the young couple will reside on La Mesa Blvd. in same city. Bev is a graduate of Helix. . . . Another Beverly, this one with the last handle reading Burns, of Lemon Grove and formerly of Helix High School before receiving her diploma, is engaged to David McKnight of Utah. . . . Josephine Melavenda is engaged to Vennerio Pernicano. Josephine resides in Spring Valley. . . . Miss Jean Wadham is engaged to Jim Fears of El Cajon. She is from Helix, he from Grossmont. . . . Barbara Renke, ex-Helixer, has the name of Mrs. Paul Christman, following their marriage. . . . Valerie Hoard, Lemon Grove, is now the wife of Bill Anders. USAF. The couple will live in Mission, Texas, where Bill is soon to begin his flight training. The bride attended Helix and State.

Summer Doin's . . . Kathy Boyd, Jill Sonka, Georgina Grove and Carol Matson are spending a week at Old Mission. . . . Beverly Bodie and Jack Felson, and Carrie Boyd and Bob Turnbull took in the Judy Garland Review. . . . Pete Celto and Jim Sinegal just goof all day by playing volleyball at Old Mission and getting their pigments brown. . . . Seen at the recent Torrey Pines sports races were Wendell Murdock, Fred Stemen, Ann Murray and her steady beau, Carol Kregar and Chuck Gaffney, Neal Curtis, Jim Renner, and Carrie Boyd and Bob Turnbull. . . . Horace Heidt and his internationally famous show will be in Balboa Stadium on Friday evening, July 29.

Dis 'n Dat . . . "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these." (Mark 12:31). To Richard CO: Take note of previous quote. The same applies to gang fights! . . . The suede jackets are pretty sharp in the eyes of the teenager, but think of poor mom when it comes time to clean them. Dry cleaning is the answer—but mom, just be sure the cleaner is a reliable. Far too many jackets have had their "life snuffed out" with improper cleaning fluids. . . . The latest in New York with the bobby-soxer are knit cotton socks, with pockets on the cuffs.

Your School Leaders! . . . Pauline Harper, new Helix secretary, will show her stuff in the field of government at Girl's State. She came to us from Pennsylvania in her sophomore year where she served as Student Forum treasurer. Pauline also serves Highlandville well, through her music abilities.

PAUL DARROW'S PAINTINGS TO BE ON DISPLAY

An exhibition of paintings by Paul Darrow of Claremont, Calif., will open at the school on Friday, July 22 and continue through the 30th, Monty Lewis, director of the Coronado School of Fine Arts reported.

Mr. Darrow is at present teaching at Scripps College, Claremont, and he is assistant director of fine arts for the Los Angeles County Fair and curator of art for the Florence Rand Galleries, Scripps College.

CARR'S CORNER

All this whoop de doo that the downtown merchants are dishing out on television just shows that they are more worried about the way we country boys are taking trade away from them, Well, big boys, we have had news for you: Rally-hoo won't take the place of the good service that the small local store can offer to its customers.

You city slickers have been all too willing to sell folks anything for a good price, but just let the buyer try to get a little service or a small part, and then he finds you are too big to handle it, and you give him the brush off. The small store on the contrary, will get any part desired for any device that it sells, no matter what.

As a matter of fact, little fellows can do lots of things that the giant fellows cannot. You remember the squirrel who reported to the great mountain— "No, I cannot carry great forests on my back; but then, neither can you crack a nut!"

Speaking of nutty things have you ever sampled the exquisite peanut brittle turned out by the Grove Pastry Shop? Maybe you'd better not. It becomes a hard-to-break habit.

Grossmont Hospital Dedication July 24

Eight years of community and organizational effort will culminate in dedication of beautiful, 108-bed Grossmont Hospital Sunday afternoon, July 24, at 2 o'clock. This columnar, cantilever-type building, atop a pleasant rolling hill in the northern part of La Mesa, provides a striking view of modern architecture to the motorist on Highway 80 or the new Alvarado Canyon freeway extension. The windows in every patient room affords a relaxing and pleasant view of the rolling hills in the Mt. Helix-Grossmont area.

The public is invited to attend the dedication ceremony to be held in front of the hospital at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Modern Facilities Serve Patients

Typical of the completely modern equipment and facilities being installed at Grossmont Hospital is the automatic dial telephone system. The courteous voice at the switchboard will greet the public on behalf of the entire staff of highly-trained technicians who are devoted to the one object of the entire institution—that of the best of care to the patient.

Largest Private Branch Exchange Dial Switchboard

The Foothills area is looking forward to the long-awaited day for the opening of the beautiful streamlined hospital which is keeping pace with this swiftly growing community. After long months of careful planning, and the wonderful efforts of the Hospital Board, the Grossmont Hospital is nearing completion. This modern structure is fully equipped with all of the most efficient hospital facilities, including the largest private branch exchange dial switchboard in the area it will serve, and the first to be installed in the La Mesa Exchange.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is proud to be a part of this attractive addition to our civic welfare.

ley was able to make it to camp for the last night and stayed until breaking up time Saturday afternoon. H. Hall Jr. was a member of the Camp Junior Staff and was in charge of the kitchen detail. He will spend additional time up there during the rest of the summer.

Assemblyman Says His 'Act' Will Save Millions

By SHERIDAN HEGLAND
Member, State Legislature

All of us have mixed feelings as the final deadline passes for Governor Knight to sign or veto 1955 legislative bills.

Personally, I am grateful to him for signing my scholarship bill. Eventually some 2,500 students each year will receive scholarships, based on competitive examinations, entitling them to attend the private or public college of their choice. Each scholarship will be worth up to $600 annually.

My guess is that the number of scholarships in San Diego County will be about 200 per year.

The "Hegland Act" received strong support from taxpayers' organizations, and will save taxpayers millions of dollars almost immediately. Reason is that it will reduce the need for great expansion of facilities at overcrowded public colleges and universities.

Representatives of such institutions as USC, Stanford, St. Mary's and Redlands believe it will further stimulate private endowments. This would maintain a proper balance between public and private higher education.

Governor Knight will appoint a nine-man commission to administer the program.

Like many another resident of this county, I was disappointed with the veto of the Beaches and Parks bill. Of the impounded tidelands oil money, the legislature appropriated some $15 million for the purchase of beach and park lands. Of this nearly half a million dollars was set up for purchase of beach lands in this county.

The governor said, discussing his veto, that he would do everything possible to see that these monies were saved for beaches and parks. I'll support him in this effort. The pressure will be strong to transfer it to general fund.

The governor's veto of the Bonelli Comic Book Censorship Bill was an act of integrity and courage. This vicious bill would open the door to eventual establishment of a state censorship bureau, with bureaucrats deciding what was safe and good for the people to know.

Almost certainly a special session on water will be called, possibly this autumn, but more likely next spring. Action on several water matters is imperative. A water department should be set up.

We'll need to vote funds to acquire sites for dams in connection with the Feather River Project. Some plan must be adopted to bring the water to Southern California.

Finally, Southern California will need some assurance that if our tax funds are used, we'll get some firm claim to Northern California water.

I have received appointments to interim committees scheduled to meet this summer: Education, County and Municipal Government, Conservation, and Agriculture. From time to time I'll write progress reports to you.

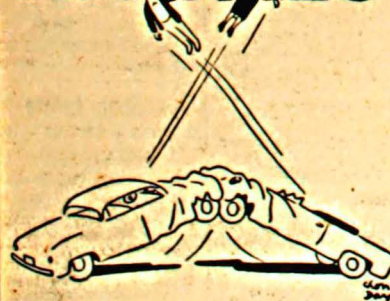

Meanwhile I'll be happy to speak before any group in this area. Just address me at my home, 9045 Madison, La Mesa.

Whom the disease of talking once possesses, he can never hold his peace. —Ben Johnson

ANXIETY, HORTICULTURE AND SOUND LECTURE SUBJECTS AT STATE

Anxiety, horticulture and the travel of sound will be the varied subjects of the fourth week of free science lecture series at San Diego State College.

Dr. Richard L. Solomon, Laboratory of Social Relations, Harvard, will analyze "Anxiety and Traumatic Avoidance Learning" in his lecture Tuesday, July 12.

"Sound in the Sea," transmission of sound in the ocean and the peculiarities of the nature of the sea imposes on it, will be the topic Wednesday. Dr. Franz Kurie, technical director of the Navy Electronics Lab in San Diego will be the speaker.

"Hormones for Horticulture" will be discussed Thursday by Dr. William S. Stewart, department of horticulture, Citrus Experiment Station, Riverside. Accompanying his talk with colored slides, he will speak of the chemical control of plant growth in particular plants, fruits and vegetables. Chemicals are used to control ripening and to prevent premature fruit drop.

Free to the public, the lectures are held at 7:30 p.m. in Science 101. A question period will follow each lecture every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday night until July 28.

HIGHWAY PATROL GIVES FOUR DRIVING SAFEGUARDS

SACRAMENTO—The California Highway Patrol today listed four rules to help vacationists say out of traffic accident trouble. They are:

1. Allow sufficient time for your trip so you can obey all the traffic rules and regulations.

2. Load your car and trailer so it will not interfere with your vision in traffic.

3. Drive only when you are fresh and alert, never after drinking or when you are fatigued.

4. Be courteous to every other driver and pedestrian.

"Vacation time can be fun time if the four simple rules are followed, not just the first few miles, but all the way to and from the vacation spot," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "All too frequently a vacationer winds up in a traffic collision because he allowed overexuberance or fatigue to interfere with his driving actions."

"The patrol's summer program of enforcement includes an awareness of the problems of vacationing motorists and action necessary to help curtail accidents involving these drivers."

DON CROOKS IS SECOND HIGHEST OF CAL-WESTERN FRESHMEN

For Donald C. Crooks, 19, of 7455 Tweed, Lemon Grove, it was a happy first year as a freshman at California Western University, the Methodist college in Point Loma.

Don was vice president of the freshman class, was second in scholastic averages in the frosh class out of approximately 150 competitors, received an honorable mention award for outstanding achievement to the school and also received a special scroll concerning the good work he accomplished while serving as a school officer.

A Helix graduate of 1954, where he ranked high in his academics as well as achieving varsity status on the football and wrestling squads, Don is at present in the forestry service in Mt. Vernon, Washington. After his summer job is completed, Don will return to Cal Western where he will continue his studies to enter the ministry.

LIE DETECTOR SPECIALIST SOUGHT FOR STATE JOB

The job, known as polygraph specialist, pays $556 to $676 a month. Applications will be accepted by the State Personnel Board.

Open to application are positions as investigators of petroleum products, paying $358-$436 or $395-$481, depending on experience. A knowledge of the accounting methods and marketing practices used in the petroleum industry, or investigation experience, is required.

State institutions also have a number of openings for the following specialists:

Director of clinical services, $1050-$1200, and psychiatrist III, $950-$1100, assistant superintendent of nursing services and psychiatric nursing education director, both $415-$505, and chief psychiatrist, correctional facility or mental hygiene clinic, $1000-$1150.

Applications and additional information may be obtained at Department of Employment office on Columbia Street in San Diego.

Judging from the recent July fourth weekend, it seems that when you get a bit tired of life, the best thing to do is take an automobile on the highway on a holiday.

SOLIMINE GIVES UP EL CAJON BLVD. FOR ESCONDIDO

One of San Diego County's notable restaurateurs, George J. Solimine, has announced purchase of the cafe and cocktail lounge at 17th St. and Highway 395 in Escondido (formerly The Fireside).

A native of Boston, Mass., Solimine has established a fine reputation over a period of many years at his famed Club 48 on El Cajon Blvd. near 48th St. in East San Diego, which featured hickory charcoal-broiled steaks, chicken, shrimp, lobster, etc.

An exacting chef, Solimine has built a reputation on the fact he personally prepares food for his clientele. A superlative host, Solimine delights in making salads and special dishes as well as selecting prime cuts of beef for his charcoal broiler. His personal supervision in the kitchen as well as the cocktail lounge has garnered him a following from all sections of San Diego County.

"As my new restaurant will be about 20 minutes away by Highway 395," Solimine declared, "I hope that my many friends and customers who formerly favored my El Cajon Blvd. restaurant will come up to see us."

He announced that his chefs and other members of his staff will make the move with him to Escondido. The name of the new restaurant, he said, will be "George Solimine's Restaurant."

In this land of the free it is noted that all candidates recommend themselves rather highly.

YOU BE THE JUDGE!

THE WRIT OF MANDAMUS

We elect public officers to do a certain job for us. But what can we do if they fail to do their lawful duty?

We can sometimes ask a court for a "writ of mandamus." This writ or written court order forces the public officer to do his lawful duty. Mandamus means "we command," and such a writ has the full backing of the force of the government, if needed.

Suppose you want to build a house, to use a simple case. So you submit your plans. They meet the terms of the city building code. But suppose the prop- erty official won't give you a permit to build, and you can't get a permit elsewhere. What can you do?

Then you can ask a court for a writ of mandamus. If the building official has no right to refuse your lawful request, the court will order him to issue you a permit. This order is a writ of mandamus.

Mandamus can enforce only public duties. That is, the writ cannot make an official do a "discretionary" act — an act which under the law he may or may not do as he pleases.

The official must have refused to do a clear legal duty. Mandamus is a special "remedy" for wrongs you may suffer at the hands of a public officer. As a rule, courts will not use this writ when another legal action will get results.

Our courts can grant you a writ of mandamus only if you have a personal stake in having the duty done. You can ask the court for it when you have some right which the public officer's failure to act will impair. In turn, a public official also may ask for a writ of mandamus to get certain duties carried out if they are owed him because of his office.

The superior and appellate courts can issue writs of mandamus. If the officer still won't do his duty, the court can fine him or otherwise see that he carries out his lawful duty.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

LAW IN ACTION

JURISDICTION OVER PERSONS

In a law suit, why do you have to serve a summons and complaint upon the person you are suing, the defendant?

Under our law, notice—for a man to get ready to defend his rights—is a part of "due process of law." A defendant must have a chance to get evidence and do other things to have his day in court.

To sue someone, you start your action in a court with lawful "jurisdiction" or power over him or his property. When the court goes beyond its power, its actions, as a rule, do not count—as when a court tries to exert power outside the state.

With such jurisdiction, the court can issue a summons telling the "defendant" to come to court at a certain time and place. The complaint, another paper, tells the defendant what he is being sued for.

Now how can the "plaintiff" get the summons served? As a rule, the plaintiff's lawyer has the sheriff or someone else serve it.

The first requirement of personal service is the defendant's physical presence. The server must talk to him face to face. You cannot give personal service by mail, telephone, or otherwise.

The defendant may refuse the summons, but it is valid if he is being served and has a reasonable opportunity to accept it. He cannot come to court and say he wasn't served with the summons. The service is also valid when you give or offer it to him within his reach. You need not thrust service on the defendant's person.

Failing personal service, you can get service by publication sometimes. If the defendant knows you are suing him and hides from the process server, you can publish the summons—this is, get the court to order the summons duly printed in a legal newspaper.

Should the defendant fail to answer that proper service of summons, you win your case by default.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

'You Mean We Won $4,000?'

VIVACIOUS KATHY WALSH has plenty to be happy about. That wonderful laugh spread over her face after her father won the $4,000 jackpot on the CBS-TV human interest program "On Your Account"—and she won two dolls. Invited to appear as a guest on the show by emcee Dennis James (r.), Raymond Walsh told how Kathy pulled her younger brother from the path of the onrushing vehicle just in time to save the child from a fatal accident. The car crashed the boy and caused him to be hospitalized. Without Kathy's heroism, it would have caused his death.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Because I live in Lemon Grove, and served there for several years, I'd like to contribute the sheriff's department point of view on child molestation and sex crimes.

If any parent sees or knows of any child molester, a call to the sheriff's office will get immediate results.

It has long been the policy of Sheriff Strand and his department to drop everything else when a child molest or sex crime is committed.

In addition to taking fast and positive steps upon information concerning these activities, the sheriff's department also gives advice and guidance to parents for prevention of such incidents. A booklet "Play Safe" will be sent to anyone requesting it. It covers the whole gamut of vacation dangers. A call to BE 3-0121, or a letter to the S. D. Sheriff's Department at 2050 Front Street, San Diego, will bring the booklet.

Additionally, the department provides men to give talks to groups interested in welfare and safety of children. We want to prevent molesters. We intend to prosecute those who are guilty of involvement.

NOW YOU CAN "GO BACK TO LEMON GROVE"

After all the furore with Dan Thren, Lemon Grove realtor and owner of the sign near Encanto which advises Lemon Grove residents to go back to El Cajon, who do you think finally painted out the traitorous admonition? It was one of Lemon Grove's hardwaremen, Hank Carr. Thren, who posed with a paintbrush and empty paint can last month, agreed to have the sign repainted out . . . then took off for Europe on an extended vacation, leaving the sign as it was. L. G. ## 'Platter Parade'

By Bob Turnbull
HO 9-5448

Ratner Recommends . . . the following two disks: "Day by Day" by the Four Freshmen and "A Foggy Day" by Stuart McKay.

Record Poll . . . Here are this week's top five pop tunes as compiled by Ratner Electric, 745 Broadway in San Diego. The Number One tune is Bill Haley's "Rock Around the Clock" on the Decca label. Number two is "Unchained" by Les Baxter, "Learning the Blues" by Frank Sinatra, "Something's Gotta Give" by Sammy Davis Jr., and also Sam's "Ole Black Magic." The two it selling classics are: "Treasure of Grand Opera" by the London Symphony Orchestra and "Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1" by Serkin. The top jazz album is "Charlie Parker Memorial Album."

"Fiddly Fatter Fatter" . . . is the name of Patti Page's latest Mercury release. The tune has a calypso beat which Patti takes in her singing stride very capably. Some people feel this recorded wax is due for some "big spinnings" as this summer's top disk in the popular field. (To each his own.)

Torch Song . . . Lena Horne, well known for her "Love Me or Leave Me" record, is releasing a spicy sizzler. It is entitled "It's Love."

"Fete Kelly's Blues" . . . is the name of the new pic starring Jack "Dragnet" Webb. Ray Anthony again does the background music as he did in Webb's "Dragnet." Although the music in this movie probably won't soar as high as "dum-de-dum-dum" it is appealing in its jazzy way. It has its own personable style.

Recommended Album . . . Doris Day's "Love Me or Leave Me." In this album Doris goes all out in such tunes as "Shine on Harvest Moon," "Ten Cents a Dance," and "Shaking the Blues Away." Those are tunes that Ruth Etting made famous many years ago—a little before my time—so I'm told.

Roy Erwin Named Grove Red Cross Head

Roy E. Erwin, 8127 Golden Avenue, a downtown insurance man, has been named chairman of the Lemon Grove Chapter of the American Red Cross of the 1955-56 year.

Art Thomas, principal of the Monterey Heights Elementary School, has accepted the chairmanship of the Fund Raising Committee for the second year in a row. Goal for the coming drive has not been ascertained, he said. Mrs. Frank Armstrong, 8230 Golden Avenue, is again chairman of the Motor Unit. Last year a vehicle was assigned to Lemon Grove for area use. It is housed locally.

Erwin said that a meeting of

Verna Williams Attending Cal-Poly Workshop

SAN LUIS OBISPO—Cutting out "introductory frills" and getting into their classes immediately after registration, some 125 representatives of almost every area in the state formed California State Polytechnic College's second annual School Lunch Workshop at Cal Poly's 3,000-acre ranch-style home campus.

Included was Verna Williams of 2007 Parrot St., San Diego, representing Lemon Grove School District.

Workshoppers were housed in Cal Poly's "Mountain Dorms" in the foothills of the Santa Lucias and enrolled for courses in Beginning Menu Planning, Advanced Menu Planning, and Nutrition. Advanced Menu Planning featured the exchange of favorite recipes, development of weekly menus and special holiday dishes.

Women enrolled for the workshop found coeds on Cal Poly's campus for the first time. The West's largest agricultural and third largest engineering college, nationally known for its learning-by-doing methods, accepted its first regular women students since 1929 when the current summer term began. Until September 1956, only women with valid teaching credentials will be accepted as students, then the college's entire program will be thrown open to coeds.

$132,000 Building Program Planned By Congregational Church

By a vote of more than ten to one in favor, the members of the First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove adopted, in an all membership meeting in Friendship Hall last Sunday, a recommendation of the church's Building Council that the Wells Organization, a church-fund-raising organization, be called in to conduct a building fund canvass with an assured minimum objective of $132,000.

The publicly announced objective of this canvass is the construction of a new sanctuary, with church offices and some adult classrooms, on the Carr property, site of the parsonage now occupied by Dan and Ginny Apra.

There were 125 votes cast in the balloting last Sunday, 115 yes votes, and 10 no votes. This is the largest vote ever recorded in the church's history, according to Dan Apra, pastor. "I'm thrilled at the result," he said, after the meeting. "This was the second most important meeting in the history of the church. The first was when 30 families organized the church 61 years ago. We are entering a new era in the forward development of the Congregational Church in Lemon Grove."

There were 125 votes cast in the balloting last Sunday, 115 yes votes, and 10 no votes. This is the largest vote ever recorded in the church's history, according to Dan Apra, pastor. "I'm thrilled at the result," he said, after the meeting. "This was the second most important meeting in the history of the church. The first was when 30 families organized the church 61 years ago. We are entering a new era in the forward development of the Congregational Church in Lemon Grove."

New Award Planned For County Newspapers

An award for the best news story of the year in county newspapers was announced this week by the S. D. Tribune.

Presentation will be made at the annual San Diego Newspaper Awards Contests sponsored by the San Diego Chamber of Commerce. The award is planned to encourage comprehensive coverage of significant news stories and good writing.

The Tribune award will be a perpetual trophy to be retained by the winning county publisher for one year and a smaller replica to be retained permanently.

Presentation of the award will be made along with three other major awards at the annual Newspaper Awards Banquet staged by the chamber of commerce the latter part of May each year. The contest and banquet were given national recognition recently in an article appearing in Editor & Publisher.

Two trophies have been presented since the contest's inception. They are the San Diego Union Community Service award and the Henry C. Reed Editorial award, presented by Carlyle Reed in memory of his late father.

Last year, the San Diego Public Relations Club sponsored an award for the county newspaper judged to have made the greatest contribution to youth service during the year.

Fifty daily and weekly newspapers are eligible to submit entries, which will be judged early in May.

The canvass is to get under way as soon as possible, with a representative of the Wells Organization heading up the campaign in the church offices on Olive Street on Monday, July 25. He will conduct training sessions for the men of the church for five and a half weeks, so that they can go ahead with the canvass which will continue as long as may be necessary over the next three year period.

Mother Goose Parade to Attract 350,000

Committee appointments have been completed for El Cajon's Ninth Annual Mother Goose Parade, it was announced by George C. Clark, president of the Mother Goose Parade Association, Inc., the community group which presents the annual parade for San Diego County youngsters.

Thomas Wigton Jr., Lemon Grove businessman, is vice president of the parade association and will be in charge of parade operations.

In announcing committee appointments, Clark forecast a record-breaking crowd for the November 20 parade. "We're confident," he said, "that well over 350,000 people will be on hand to witness the parade." Three hundred thousand attended the Mother Goose Parade last year.

Wigton, founder of the annual El Cajon event, forecast parade attendance will top the half-million mark "within the next few years. Already," he said, "El Cajon's Mother Goose Parade is the nation's largest free entertainment spectacle for youngsters, and it's growing every year."

MAIN STREET... Disneyland, is a thoroughfare that turns the clock back to the turn of the century. The visitor's first sight as he enters the playground, Main Street is an accurate, scaled-down replica of a typical small city street, complete to horse-drawn street cars, an old-fashioned fire station and other establishments that reflect the 1890-1900 atmosphere.

Disneyland has caught the fancy of Lemon Grove youngsters and adults alike. Hundreds will make the trip north this year to visit this fabulous land of charm and fantasy.

This is the first in a series of three articles intended to give you a preview of what you will see.

If you really want to get away from it all for a few hours, you can do it now via a new route.

Just head for Disneyland park in Anaheim.

For vacationers, weekend travelers, or plain Sunday drivers a tour through the unbelievable playground will be a trip that is almost literally out of this world.

Because behind the high embankment that shuts in the heart-shaped park and shuts out present day cares, are "new worlds" of enchantment serving up fun for all kinds and ages of people.

Entering the park your first view is of Main Street, a replica of a typical small city street as it looked at the turn of the century. The scene will undoubtedly start a good deal of talk about Lemon Grove as it was "way back when."

Horse-drawn street cars will trundle up and down the street, stopping to pick up passengers. Occasionally, the horse-drawn hose and chemical wagon will roar out of the fire house in a very real rush to some imaginary fire.

Clustered around the "town square" are the fire house, the city hall, the Disneyland railroad station, the opera house and several mercantile shops. Moving out of the square and up the street, visitors will find the emporium busy with shoppers actually making purchases. An operating branch bank will be open for business, as will a photo shop, meat market, drug store, penny arcade, oldtime nickelodeon, and even an old-fashioned ice cream parlor.

In keeping with the 50-years-ago theme, various stores along the main stem will be sponsored by companies that have been in business 50 years or more.

Visitors who time their trip to bring them to Main Street at dusk (the park will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. every day this summer) will be treated to the nostalgic sight of a lamplighter setting aglow the 100-year-old gas lamps that line the street.

At the end of Main Street is the Plaza, the hub of Disneyland, from which any of the lands may be entered.

If you want to keep the day-gone-by mood, you can swing left through the log stockade into Frontierland. Here, you see Indians weaving blankets and baskets, horses being shod at a blacksmith shop, miners moving in and out of the assay office, and frontiersmen having a fling at the "Golden Horseshoe," the longest little bar in the world—you can stop in too for soft drinks.

Stage coaches carry passengers from Frontierland through a Painted Desert, pass an Indian encampment, ford a stream and go through a pine forest. In addition to the stage coach rides—there are different wagons and different routes—you can go down to the dock and board the "Mark Twain" stern wheeler for a trip on the "rivers of America."

The 105-foot boat, typical of ones that traveled the Mississippi in 1900, carries 300 passengers and is built to five-eighth scale. With its romantic atmosphere of early riverboat days, the boat ride is expected to be one of the most popular in the park.

NOTE: This is the first of three articles on the fabulous new Disneyland park in Anaheim. The second article will move out of the world of yesterday into the world of tomorrow.)

Tuberous Begonias Are Awe Inspiring

Any person who has witnessed the display of tuberous begonias in bloom at Capitola, Calif., will bear witness to the fact that here is nature at her finest. The work of the flower growers in Capitola and others around the world has extended the color range of this plant and also given us many new and strikingly different petal arrangements and flower form.

Although these plants are now available in the form of bulbs, started bulbs and seedling plants, let us at this time consider the seedling plant because of its lower cost and therefore greater acceptability by you, the planter.

The plants of seedling tuberous begonias are now available at a reasonable figure at your local garden center. These plants were produced from seeds so microscopic that they are hardly visible to the naked eye. From seeds planted last November and December the plants you now find were produced.

Begonias are very brittle and caution of this fact should be taken in planting. They should be planted in soil that is enriched with peat moss and leaf mold. Begonias are a fairly hardy plant if planted in areas where camellias or other shade loving plants thrive. Few pests, except snails, attack them. Be sure and scatter a snail poison around the plants. Keep the soil moist and fertilize with an all element mixture. A light sprinkling of soil sulfur periodically around the plants will help maintain an acid condition in the soil which these plants desire.

Your writer has grown and sold many plants. However, each time that this plant is seen in bloom, he stops in awe. Try some in your garden and you too will come under their spell.

WRITERS GROUP TO MEET IN LEMON GROVE

On Thursday evening Mrs. Doris Bostwick was hostess to the members of her writing group in her new home at 2880 Cypress Ave. Mrs. Marie Herder read a descriptive paper on her recent trip to New York, and other manuscripts were read and criticized.

As an example of suitable factual material to be found in the area, an article appearing in the Lemon Grove Review, descriptive of the nearby grave of a countess, was considered significant.

Mrs. Ray Heiserman gave a market report.

Miss Ethel Stout, whose column appears in an El Cajon paper, was a special guest, and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, a new member of the group, assisted her sister in serving.

Something New Under The Sun

Puff... it's a hat! This wonderful sun hat is the handiest fashion item introduced in many a summer and, according to fashion forecasters, will be a vacation headliner. It inflates with a "puff" and deflates back to purse size in a jiffy. Designed to protect lady from the scorching sun at the seashore, in the garden, in the mountains or just plain walking down city streets, the puff hat comes in one size to fit every feminine head.

It is really a picture hat that compactly fits a purse, can be slipped out at a moment's notice and inflated by blowing gently into a tiny valve until hat assumes full size as shown by model in picture. When it has reached full-brimmed proportions—this takes a few seconds and little breath—you bend the valve over and tuck it out of sight into a slit. To deflate merely remove plug, let out air and fold into a small package.

This amazing, new item comes in eight high-fashion, sunfast colors—four prints and four solids—is non-inflammable, scuff resistant and can be purchased in variety and drug stores everywhere.

SERMON STRESSES POWER OF TRUTH

The healing and redeeming power of Truth, God, will be the central theme in the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" in all the Christian Science Churches on Sunday.

A highlight of the sermon is the account of the healing of the epileptic boy—the only son of his father. After the disciples had failed to heal the case it was called to Jesus' attention. Jesus commanded, "Bring thy son hither." Then the account continues, "And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. (Luke 9:41, 42.)"
